Amanda Kroeker

BSA, MSc, PAg

Registered Animal Nutritionist

Amanda Kroeker is a Registered Animal Nutritionist with specialized training in large animal nutrition. Amanda attended the University of Guelph and the University of Saskatchewan where she was awarded a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture (BSA) and Master of Science (MSc) from the Department of Animal and Poultry Science. Her training centered around Equine Nutrition, Nutritional Biochemistry, and Hindgut Microbiology.

After completing her MSc, she contracted her nutrition services as a large Animal Nutritionist to various feed companies throughout North America. In 2005, Amanda and her husband founded ARK

Nutrition with the intent of building a nutrition practice that offers nutrition services direct to the horse owner. ARK Nutrition works in the areas of sport horse nutrition as well as therapeutic/critical care horse nutrition. In addition to working with her clients at ARK Nutrition, Amanda continues to partner with international companies to participate in research and development within equine nutrition.
