

NCCP Western Instructor/Competition Coach Certification Prerequisites of Western Learn to Ride Program

The following outlines the necessary Western Learn to Ride levels that are required as a prerequisite for candidates looking to become NCCP Certified Western Instructors or Competition Coaches.

Western Instructor Prerequisite

A rider looking to become an NCCP Certified Western Equestrian Instructor is required to complete the following Western Learn to Ride levels/sections as a prerequisite:

- Western Instructor –
 - Minimum Western Rider Level 4 (Current Programming);
 - Physical Exemption and completion of Stable Management and Written Test Sections of all levels up to and including Level 4 (Current Programming).

Western Competition Coach Prerequisite

A rider looking to become an NCCP Certified Western Equestrian Competition Coach is required to complete the following Western Learn to Ride levels/sections as a prerequisite:

- Western Competition Coach—
 - Minimum Western Rider Level 4 (Current Programming) AS WELL AS completion of the Basic Training (formerly known as the General Component) module of the Western Intermediate Rider program;
 - Physical Exemption and completion of Stable Management and Written Test Sections of all levels up to and including Level 4 (Current Programming) and the same for Basic Training (formerly known as the General Component) module of the Western Intermediate Rider program.

Questions?

Contact Alberta Equestrian Federation at coaching@albertaequestrian.com